

Local News

Prof. J. A. Knight, is teaching a summer school at Shiloh.

Mr. William Jordan, of the Hursey's mill section, is having his farm surveyed this week. J. V. Funderburk, the local engineer and surveyor, assisted by Hazel Laney, has charge of the work.

Rev. M. C. King asks The Journal to say that the protracted meeting at Bethlehem next Sunday morning. Rev. R. H. James, of Marshville, will assist him in the meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Prof. J. C. Pate, of Beech Island Aiken county, has accepted the position as principal of the Jefferson High School for the coming term. Prof. Pate is a married man of about 35 years, and one of splendid qualifications.

Mr. Kemp Phillips and Miss Willie Sims were married at Matthews, N. C. on Sunday night, July 11th. Mr. Phillips is a son of Mr. W. F. Phillips, of the Mt. Moriah section. Mrs. Phillips is a daughter of Mr. H. H. Sims, of the same section.

Mr. Hugh W. Rollings, son of Mr. Jack Rollings, of the Wolf Pond section, and Miss Lula Rodgers, daughter of Mr. Jesse Rodgers, of Buford township, were married here Sunday July 11th by Magistrate S. I. Evans.

Mr. W. M. Propst, of Seneca, S. C., died at his home Friday morning. He was the father of Miss Florida Propst, who taught music in the graded school here. Mr. Propst was 59 years of age, and there will be two sermons.

Mrs. F. W. Walters was carried Sunday to the Charlotte Sanatorium, where she underwent an operation Monday for appendicitis and tumor of the ovary. She stood the operation well and was getting along nicely at last reports.

There was a little fight at Providence church last Thursday night, and as a result John Evans was slightly cut on each hand, Lee Gullidge was cut on arm and the congregation was disturbed. Others took part in the rumpus, but the trial has not been held, and it can't be said just how many will be implicated.

A 3 room dwelling in the eastern part of town belonging to Mr. Lem Robertson was burned last Thursday morning about 2 o'clock. The flames had spread almost over the building before it was discovered, and nothing was saved. Mr. Robertson's furniture was in the building but he and his family had been living with Mr. P. H. Evans for some time. There was $300 insurance on the building and $200 on the furnitures.

Joe Malloy, the Marlboro county negro who was arrested three years and eight months ago on the charge of murdering two white boys and who was convicted of the crime, has been sentenced to die in the electric chair today. He was sentenced to be hanged soon after the crime but before the day of execution the method of putting criminals to death was changed from hanging to electrocution. This was taken advantage of by Malloy's attorneys who claimed that he could not be legally electrocuted when he had been sentenced to be hanged. It was carried through the courts but finally the case was decided against him. He still says he is innocent of the crime and praises the jail officers for their kind treatment while he has been confined.

Mr. W. J. Blakeney had a collar bone broken and a hip painfully bruised yesterday morning when a horse dashed and threw him from a dray wagon on which he was hauling some lumber. Drs. Eubanks and Ashcraft set the broken bone.

Mr. W. H. Funderburk, of the Dudley section, will be 81 years old in September and he has plowed 13 acres this year. He is the oldest Confederate veteran in Old Store township and may be the oldest in the county for all we know. He is remarkably strong and healthy for a man of his age.

Harry K. Thaw was released from the custody of the law last Friday for the first time in more than nine years. He was judged insane seven years ago and committed to Matteawan asylum. After a long and hard fight in the courts a jury declared him sane last Wednesday and he was released.

The following young men stood examination at Chesterfield Friday for the scholarship to the Citadel at Charleston: Burrus Edgeworth, Pageland; Hargett Rivers, Chesterfield; William Thrower and Edward Wright, of Cheraw. Mr. Ira B. Armfield, of Jefferson, has held the scholarship from this county for the past three years.

Mr. H. N. Askins purchased the stock of the Cheraw Mercantile Company at the bankrupt sale in Cheraw Friday. This is a big stock of dry goods and notions in excellent shape. The inventory amounted to $11,070 and the price paid was $6,140.00. Mr. Askins is putting on a 10 days sale. See his advertisement in this issue.

The Journal is asked to announce that there will be a Sunday School picnic at Cross Roads church the first Saturday in September beginning at 9 A. M. Several speakers have been invited to make addresses during the day. Everybody is invited to attend with well-filled baskets.

Mr. Mark Faulks died Saturday morning at the home of Mr. J. M. Kiker near White Plains, where he came on a visit about two weeks before. Brain trouble caused his death. The body was buried at White Plains Sunday. Mr. Faulks was about 35 years old, and is survived by his wife and one child. They lived on the farm of Mr. Henry Eubanks near Big Creek.

Mr and Mrs W. L. Marze returned Wednesday from the camp meeting at Antioch in upper Union county. Mr. Marze reports that there were 46 conversions on Tuesday night, under the burning words of Rev. Abernethy and of Mr. Fife, of Charlotte, the gambler who was converted in the recent Chapman-Alexander meeting, and who has been a great power for good from that time until this.

Local rains have fallen throughout this section and there is some promise of rain of more general nature in a day or two. The drouth has been broken but more rain is needed. Most of us are thankful for what we have had, however.

Ninety In The Shade.

Hot weather? Yes; but really not, Compared with weather twice as hot. Find comfort, then, in arguing thus, And you'll pull through victorious!— For instance, while you gasp and pant And try to cool yourself—and can't— With soda, cream and lemonade, The heat at ninety in the shade,— Just calmly sit and ponder o'er These same degrees, with ninety more On top of them, and so concede The weather now is cool indeed! Consider how the sun would pour At one hundred and eighty-four— Just twice the heat that seems to be Affecting you unpleasantly, The very hour that you might find As cool as dew were you inclined. But why proceed when none will heed Advice apportioned to the need? Hot weather? Yes; but really not, Compared with weather twice as hot! —James Whitcome Riley.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of thanking our good neighbors and friends for the kindness shown and the aid given us during the sickness and death of our kinsman, Mr. Mark Faulks. We appreciate it all, J. M. Kiker.
